

1 Rule 14-413. MCLE credit for qualified audio and video presentations; webcasts;
2 computer interactive telephonic programs; writing; lecturing; teaching; live
3 attendance.

4 (a) Credit will be allowed for self-study with Board accredited audio and video
5 presentations, webcasts or computer interactive telephonic programs in accordance
6 with the following.

7 (a)(1) One hour of self-study credit will be allowed for viewing and/or listening to 60
8 minutes of audio or video presentations, webcasts or computer interactive telephonic
9 programs in accordance with Rule 14-408(a).

10 (a)(2) No more than 12 hours of credit may be obtained through self-study with audio or 11 video presentations, webcasts or computer interactive telephonic programs. Upon
12 application to the Board, the Board may grant a waiver, permitting a lawyer on active
13 status to obtain all required hours of credit through self-study, if the lawyer:

14 (a)(2)(A) does not reside in Utah; and

15 (a)(2)(B) is engaged in full-time volunteer work for a religious or charitable organization.

16 (b) Credit will be allowed for writing and publishing an article in a legal periodical in 17 accordance with the following.

18 (b)(1) To be eligible for any credit, an article must:

19 (b)(1)(A) be written to address a lawyer audience;

20 (b)(1)(B) be at least 3,000 words in length;

21 (b)(1)(C) be published by a recognized publisher of legal material; and

22 (b)(1)(D) not be used in conjunction with a seminar.

23 (b)(2) Three credit hours will be allowed for each 3,000 words in the article. An 24 application for accreditation of the article must be submitted at least 60 days prior to 25 reporting the activity for credit. Two or more authors may share credit obtained pursuant 26 to this paragraph in proportion to their contribution to the article. No more than 12 hours
27 of credit may be obtained through writing and publishing an article or articles.

28 (c) Credit will be allowed for lecturing in an accredited CLE program, ~~and~~ part-time
29 teaching by a lawyer in an approved law school, or delivering a paper or speech on a
30 professional subject at a meeting primarily attended by lawyers, legal assistants or law
31 students in accordance with the following.

32 (c)(1) Lecturers in an accredited CLE program and part-time teachers may receive three
33 hours of credit for each hour spent in lecturing or teaching as provided in Rule 14-
34 408(a).

35 (c)(2) No lecturing or teaching credit is available for participation in a panel discussion.

36 (c)(3) No more than 12 hours of credit may be obtained through lecturing and part-time
37 teaching.

38 (d) Credit will be allowed for lecturing and teaching by full-time law school faculty
39 members in accordance with the following.

40 (d)(1) Full-time law school faculty members may receive credit for lecturing and
41 teaching but only for lecturing and teaching accredited CLE courses.

42 (d)(2) No lecturing or teaching credit is available for participation in panel discussions.

43 (d)(3) No more than 12 hours of credit may be obtained through lecturing and teaching
44 by full-time law school faculty members.

45 (e) Credit will be allowed for attendance at an accredited CLE program in accordance
46 with the following.

47 (e)(1) Credit is allowed for attendance at an accredited CLE program in accordance with 48 Rule 14-408(a).

49 (e)(2) ~~There is no A minimum of 12 CLE hours, with no maximum~~ restriction, ~~on the~~
50 ~~percentage of the credit hour requirement which may~~ must be obtained through 51 attendance ~~at an accredited CLE program. However, a minimum of 12 hours must be~~
52 ~~obtained through attendance~~ at live in-person CLE programs.

53 (f) The total of all hours allowable under paragraphs (a), (b), (c), and (d) of this rule may 54 not exceed 12 hours during a reporting period.

55 (g) No credit is allowed for self-study programs except as expressly permitted under 56 paragraph (a).